

Anarchy @ the Library!

D'Arcy Hutchings
(907) 786-6831
darcy@uaa.alaska.edu

Library Catalog

Searches locally owned materials
Use general search terms
Keyword searches to find subjects
Subject searches to find all materials
Explore before WorldCat

Finding Books

WorldCat

Searches materials worldwide
Search using same subject terms
Request items via ILL
ILL requests must be made early

Academic Search Premier

Start with general purpose database
May use more specific search terms
Search by keyword and subject
Databases use different subjects
Always check for full text

Finding Articles

Subject-Specific Databases

Sociological Abstracts
Social Sciences Abstracts
Historical Abstracts
America: History and Life
Newspaper Source and many more

Evaluate!

Author: credibility and credentials
Purpose: inform or persuade?
Content: currency, coverage
Balance: bias, documented claims
Recognition: others link to it

Websites

Websites to Explore*

The Anarchist Library
Online Library of Liberty
The Emma Goldman Papers
Wikipedia Anarchism Portal (verify!)
* Links to these and other websites available in course LibGuide

Remember...

Take time to come up with variety of search terms.
Search for and evaluate websites to use.
Log in to access databases off campus.
Record citations from every source used.
Submit ILL requests early.
Find more sources with bibliographies & reading lists.
Utilize a variety of sources according to assignment.
Don't hesitate to ask for help!

Explore the course LibGuide at <http://libraryschool.campusguides.com/anarchy> for additional sources, research tips, and more.

Getting Help

Ask a Librarian for assistance in person or via chat, phone, or email